Dissertation Financial Hardship Relief Program

Pacifica understands that in a small number of cases, students who have shown strong academic progress find themselves experiencing financial distress at a time when they are very close to completing their dissertation. In order to support these students, Pacifica is offering a Dissertation Hardship Relief Program. Please contact the office of Financial Aid for more information at 805/679-6197.