

Accessing ProQuest, Pacifica's Library Database and Academic Journals Online

Pacifica Graduate Institute offers access to ProQuest, Pacifica's Library Database and Academic Journals. Access to these materials is available to students, faculty, and staff.

How to access Pacifica's online resources off campus:

To access Pacifica's online resources, please go to:
http://www.pacifica.edu/library_journals_databases.aspx

- Select the database you wish to use.
- If you are off campus, you will be asked to enter your library catalog username and password into the off campus login screen.
- Your username should be firstname.lastname (e.g. Joe.Smith), unless you have asked to have it changed in the library catalog.
- Your password is your ID number.
- Your ID number is the last 5 digits on your library card.
- If you do not know your ID number, you can call the Pacifica Library at 969-3626, extension 115.

Pacifica's online resources include databases below:

ProQuest

EBSCO

ARAS

JSTOR Arts & Sciences III

Cambridge Collections Online

Oxford English Dictionary

Counseling & Therapy in Video

Stahl's Essential Psychopharmacology

Gale Virtual Reference Library

World Folklore and Folklife

Full Text Journal and Ebook Directory