Students have the option to order printed, bound copies of the dissertation and they are billed for all duplication and binding charges. It is not necessary or expected to order a copy for the library or for dissertation committee members, though students may wish to own a personal copy.

Hard bound copy costs: 20 cents per page for duplication and $20 shipping to book bindery. Book Binding is $75.00 each, including shipping to student for up to five copies. (Additional shipping will be added for more than five copies.)

Soft bound copies costs: 20 cents per page for duplication and there is no fee for perfect (soft) binding. Each page that contains a color image is printed at the cost of $1 per page.

Students also may insert a CD or DVD pocket in the manuscript at the cost of $9.00 per pocket per copy.

Please note pricing may change without notice

Pacifica will pay the cost of mailing up to five copies of the dissertation to students with a U.S. address. Beyond five copies, students will be billed for the mailing costs. Students with an address outside of the U.S. will receive a separate bill for shipping prior to printing.
