February marks Black History Month, a time to celebrate Black Excellence, a term used to describe the individual contributions, perseverance, achievements, and successes of the Black community. The 2023 theme for Black History Month, set by the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH), is Black Resistance.

This year, the Institute will honor Black History Month through our landmark event "Celebration of Black History" on February 17 at our Lambert Road campus. The event will begin with lunch at noon, followed by a program recognizing Pacifica and local community leaders who exemplify Black Excellence.

We invite you to join us! Please RSVP by Sunday, February 12 at the link below.
