

MA Counseling Psychology Program Outcomes & Student Learning Outcomes

The program's 4 Program Outcomes (PO) and 7 Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) pertaining to marriage and family therapy and professional clinical counseling are listed below. They are numbered sequentially and clustered into the three curricular domains.

Program Outcomes (PO)

PO 1: To admit and graduate students of diverse populations prepared for the practice of marriage family therapy and clinical counseling.

PO 2: To prepare and graduate students skilled in the art, science, practice, and profession of marriage family therapy and clinical counseling.

PO 3: To prepare students for the practice of marriage family therapy and clinical counseling through theoretical understanding, experiential training, and a one and half year supervised practicum/traineeship experience.

PO 4: To prepare students to be informed researchers and creators of scholarly work as it relates to the practice of marriage family therapy and clinical counseling.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

SLO 1: Students will become proficient in theoretical orientations that offer perspective and meaning to systemic patterns of human behavior.

SLO 2: Students will demonstrate knowledge and application of legal and ethical standards in scholarly work and supervised practicum as they pertain to marriage and family therapy and clinical counseling.

SLO 3: Students will demonstrate knowledge of and respect for diversity.

SLO 4: Students will learn and apply research skills in their scholarly work pertaining to marriage family therapy, clinical counseling, and depth psychological perspectives.

SLO 5: Students demonstrate knowledge of family systems theories and apply understanding to case conceptualization, assessment, and treatment in clinical practice.

SLO 6: Students are knowledgeable and skillfully apply evidence-based assessment procedures to client cases and demonstrate awareness of community mental health and diversity related considerations.

SLO 7: Students will identify and integrate systemic depth psychological perspectives of human interaction and demonstrate competence in the field of marriage family therapy and clinical counseling.