

2026/2027 COST OF ATTENDANCE

Cost of Attendance is a budget established by the institution to project the educational expenses for the academic year. This encompasses:

- Direct costs: Tuition and residential or non-residential fees
- Indirect costs: Estimates for living expenses (outside of Pacifica), books, travel, personal, and miscellaneous expenses

The estimated figures for the indirect costs are provided by The College Board and are based on nine-month 2024 California regional and metropolitan budgets created by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Please note that these are only estimates; individual student expenses may differ depending on their standard of living and their place of residence.

*LICENSE, CRED, CERT	$1,500
ANNUAL TOTAL	$39,892

*License, credential, and certification fees are included in the Cost of Attendance during the fall quarter of the first and second years of the dissertation. These fees are not included during dissertation extension periods.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

The actual amount of loan fees a student pays depends on the total amount borrowed. The Department of Education deducts a 1.057% origination fee from Federal Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loan disbursements and a 4.228% origination fee from Federal Direct PLUS Loan disbursements. For current fee and interest rate information, visit the Federal Student Aid website. Students applying for federal financial aid may complete the 2026–2027 FAFSA by visiting the Federal Student Aid website.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS OFFICE

For financial aid recipients, quarterly payment for the balance is due in the Student Accounts Office 14-days prior to the start of each quarter. Visit the Student Accounts webpage to view the payment schedule for your specific Track. The Student Accounts Office will post monthly billing statements online at My.Pacifica Self-Service indicating your account balance. When you have completed all the required paperwork for financial aid, anticipated financial aid will be reflected on the billing statements until the actual funds are received from the U.S. Department of Education each quarter. Payment plans are available and all requests should be submitted to the Student Accounts Office prior to the first day of class.

Visit the Student Accounts webpage to view the payment schedule for your specific Track. The Student Accounts Office will post monthly billing statements online at My.Pacifica Self-Service indicating your account balance. When you have completed all the required paperwork for financial aid, anticipated financial aid will be reflected on the billing statements until the actual funds are received from the U.S. Department of Education each quarter.

Payment plans are available and all requests should be submitted to the Student Accounts Office prior to the first day of class.

2026/2027 COST OF ATTENDANCE

The Cost of Attendance is a budget determined by the institution to estimate the cost of education for the academic year. This includes DIRECT COSTS, such as tuition and residential/non-residential fees, plus estimates of INDIRECT COSTS, including living expenses (outside of Pacifica), books, travel, personal, and miscellaneous expenses.

DIRECT COST

Includes tuition and residential/non-residential fees as well as additional lodging. These are the cost of items that you pay directly to the school. Tuition and fee rates are subject to increase each year; new rates are effective September 1st each year.
